

ATTENDING CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

Concordia University has five academic colleges: College of Arts & Sciences (CAS), College of Education (COE), College of Health & Human Services (CHHS), School of Law (LAW), and School of Management (SOM). Students who are not yet decided about professional goals can explore career options and gain a liberal arts base during this exploration.

Concordia University welcomes applications from all students who have demonstrated that they are able to successfully participate in and benefit from the courses of study offered. Concordia University admits students of any religion, race, color, national and ethnic origin, sex, age, sexual orientation and disability to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the University. It does not discriminate on the basis of religion, race, color, national and ethnic origin, gender, age, sexual orientation or disability in administration of its educational policies and programs, admission policies, merit scholarships and loan programs, and athletic or other university-administered programs. Complaints or concerns should be filed with the University's Title IX coordinator.

General admission to the university does not constitute admission to a program of study. Contact the Office of Admission at 503-280-8501 for specific requirements.
